PRESIDENT'S LETTER

I thoroughly enjoyed the Mancuso Quilt Show. Hope you did, too. The quilts were amazing, the classes and lectures were informative and entertaining, and the vendors always have great new products.

QGbtS's exhibits were very well received. We were fortunate to have been assigned space near the entrance where we were easily noticed by attendees both coming and going. Our beautiful Donation Quilt attracted much attention, as did the Challenge Quilts and the Build-A-Quilt displays. A big thank you to Linda Bouvier and her helpers for organizing and operating the ticket sales booth, to Janet Eckard for chairing and installing the Challenge Quilt display, to Diane Provost for chairing and installing the Build-A-Quilt display, and a special thank you to everyone who did White Glove service which was mandatory for QGbtS's participation in the Show. Congratulations to each of you who exhibited a quilt, whether individually or as part of a group presentation.

Thank you also to Deb Shoemaker, who produces our wonderful newsletter and our website which now contains recent QGbtS newsletters, a listing of our library books, and upcoming events. Please visit the website, www.quiltguildbythesea.com, often for new additions. Thanks to Joan Cohn for compiling the book listing and maintaining our library and kudos to Joanne Miller for maintaining QGbtS's Facebook page. Send her items you would like to share and visit this site often.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

QGbtS is in need of volunteers for the following positions:

- Local Longarm Quilters
- Photographer
- Webmaster

Ticket sales for the Donation Quilt are going well; but, of course, we need to sell more! The money will go into the general budget and will help fund Guild activities this year. If you have bought tickets already, we thank you. If you haven't, please buy some. A ticket is a nice little gift to tuck into a birthday card or a Valentine greeting.

Hope you are busy stitching on your Challenge Quilt and this year's Build-A-Quilt and other fun stuff.

Happy quilting. See you soon.

Susan

A LETTER FROM SARAH

I just want to thank each and every one of you for all the wonderful Halloween fabrics. What a great surprise! I have been having a ball with all of it. I was so touched that all of you took the time and effort to give me something that I love so much. I feel like a miser counting his gold! I keep going back and looking at all the fabric.

The fabric is spread out all over the sofa in the den. I just can't seem to put it away. I keep looking at it every day. I have taken two workshops since our last meeting; in each one I used some of my Halloween fabrics.

Thank you, thank you, thank you! Also, thank you for the gift certificate. It will be put to good use. Don't know on what just yet, but someday soon.

Our Guild is the best ever, and you all make it so.
Sarah

BOOK REVIEW

Creative Embellishments, Rodale Press

Decoration, beading, texture, trimming, and embroidery seem to be used on many quilts, garments, and accessories. They add beauty, interest, and value to the things we create. This book offers the information, instruction, and, hopefully, the motivation one needs to accomplish the desired results. You will find clear pictures, charts, and diagrams in this book; supply lists, modern methods, and great ideas are also included on each page. Some of the topics covered are beading, the use of lace ribbons, and buttons. Both hand and machine work is demonstrated. This book covers it all, whatever and wherever your needs and tastes run.
